

BRENDA ANGIEL AERIAL DANCE COMPANY, Buenos Aires, Argentina

The Brenda Angiel Aerial Dance Company has been an innovator in the aerial dance form since 1994. From its home base in Buenos Aires, Argentina, the company combines elements of tango, hip-hop, and modern dance into a kinetic new form. Dancers break down boundaries of style and gravity, dancing against the walls and on the floor, floating through the air to the beats of an entirely original score.

The company has performed extensively in Buenos Aires and throughout Argentina, as well as in Puerto Rico, the Netherlands, Austria, Brazil, Colombia, Canada, the US, Mexico, China, and many other countries.

About the Artistic Director

Brenda Angiel is the company's artistic director and choreographer. She studied at the Cunningham School and Nikolais/Louis Dance Lab. Angiel was a choreographer in residence at the American Dance Festival in Durham, NC, and was twice selected for the festival's International Choreographers Commissioning Program. She has received commissions from the Contemporary Dance Company of Caxias do Sul in Brazil and Wired Aerial Theatre in Liverpool, England. Angiel is the founder of the first aerial dance school in Buenos Aires and has led workshops in her unique style of airborne dance while on tour with her company.
